

GSUSA's On-line Volunteer Orientation

At this time, only Girl Scout Basic Orientation is offered as an on-line training. All other training courses at Girl Scouts of Shagbark Council are offered "in person" or as a "Take Home Training Workshop".

Here are the steps to follow to take the Girl Scout Basic Orientation on-line:

- In your search browser type in <http://onlinelearning.girlscouts.org>
- It will ask you for a password, type in discover (all lower case)
- To register your answers for the on-line workshop, you must click on the "Learning Log".
- When it asks for your e-mail address, type in your own e-mail along with the following jgomez@shagbark.org It is imperative to type in the shagbark e-mail address in order to receive credit for completing the on-line course.
- Please fill in ALL other fields the Learning Log asks for. Your information is confidential and secure. Without this information, we cannot insure that you will receive credit for completing the course.
- Results are monitored by Shagbark Council's Director of Adult Development and Training. If you have any questions regarding this training course or others, please contact us at the Council Service Center.
